Who should file this form?

This form is used to identify additional resulting associations that have been created by a division and must be submitted with a completed DSCB:15-366 (Statement of Division) form.

Form Instructions

B. For the resulting association(s).

Complete the requested information for all new resulting associations of the division.

B.1. Give the exact name of each new resulting association. “Resulting association” means a dividing association, if it survives the division, or a new association that is created by a division and comes into existence immediately after the division becomes effective. 15 Pa.C.S. § 312.

The resulting association name must include the appropriate association designator. For example, if a new corporation is being created as a resulting association, an acceptable corporate identifier must be part of the association name. For domestic filing entity name requirements, see 15 Pa.C.S. §§ 201-207. For foreign association name requirements, see 15 Pa.C.S. § 412 and § 414. Statutes are available on the Pennsylvania General Assembly website, www.legis.state.pa.us, by following the link for Statutes.

This field is required.

B.2. Give the jurisdiction of formation of the resulting association. “Jurisdiction of formation” means the jurisdiction whose law includes the governing statute of the entity. For example, if the resulting association is a Pennsylvania corporation, then the jurisdiction of formation is Pennsylvania.

This field is required.

B.3. Check the appropriate box to indicate the resulting association type. Only one box may be checked. This field is required.

B.4. Check and complete one of the address boxes for the resulting association, based on the criteria given. This field is required.

If the new resulting association is a domestic filing association, domestic limited liability partnership or registered foreign association, the address provided must be of its registered office (a) or Commercial Registered Office Provider (b) as on file with the Department of State.

If the new resulting association is a domestic association that is not a domestic filing association or limited liability partnership, the address given must be the principal office, including street and number, if any.

If the new resulting association is a non-registered foreign association, the address provided must be the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered or similar office required to be maintained by the law of its jurisdiction of formation; or if it is not required to maintain a registered or similar office, its principal office.

Post office boxes are not acceptable for any address. Under 15 Pa.C.S. § 135(c) (relating to addresses) an actual street or rural route box number must be used as an address, and the Department of State is required to refuse to receive or file any document that sets forth only a post office box address.

B.5. In a division, some or all of the property and liabilities are allocated between the dividing association and the resulting associations. It is not necessary to list in the statement of division each individual liability or item of property of the dividing association to be allocated to a resulting association, so long as the liabilities and property are described in a reasonable manner.
